THE ULTIMATE SLOW-TRAVEL YACHTING EXPERIENCE

As you sail from San Juan, Puerto Rico to Lisbon, Portugal, take advantage of the ideal opportunity to renew and recharge—mind, body, and soul. With more time to lounge and stargaze, read that favorite book you've been meaning to get to, sample a variety of new dishes from your chef's varied, curated cuisine, practice your golf swing, and pamper yourself at the only Thai-certified Spa at sea. Have fun and try your hand at something new with our new onboard bridge and art instructors, perfect for guests of any skill level.

MEET YOUR ACTIVITY HOSTS

HEATHER FRAZIER | ART INSTRUCTOR

Heather Frazier is an experienced art teacher and studio business owner. For 15 years, Heather led classes teaching different art forms and personal creativity from her studio in Apex, North Carolina. Since retiring, Heather has been traveling and practicing her Travel Sketching method. Using a step-by-step process, Heather makes it easy for students to be successful creating lovely watercolors, sketches and experiencing the joy of creative expression.

THOMAS MUSSO | BRIDGE INSTRUCTOR

Tom Musso is a retired Naval Officer and engineer, as well as a bridge player, instructor, and director. Tom is a Diamond Life Master with 6,400 points. He and his wife, a retired teacher and RN, love to travel and have taken many cruises. After retiring, the Mussos moved to Charleston, SC where Tom is a member of the Charleston Bridge Center, is on the ACBL Unit 160 Board of Directors, and obtained certification as bridge director and accreditation as bridge instructor.

DID YOU KNOW?

Our onboard bridge instructor provides one-hour bridge-playing classes daily and hosts bridge play each day for players of all skill levels. All your materials—from cards to bidding boxes—will be supplied. Similarly, our onboard art instructor will host water painting classes for one hour most mornings and afternoons and will supply all materials for each guest of any skill level.
