

Transatlantic Spring Voyage II

Bridgetown, Barbados to Malaga, Spain

Apr 22 - May 4, 2024 • 12 days • Seadream II

THE ULTIMATE SLOW-TRAVEL YACHTING EXPERIENCE

As you sail from Malaga, Spain to Marigot, St. Martin, take advantage of the ideal opportunity to renew and recharge—mind, body, and soul. With more time to lounge and stargaze, read that favorite book you’ve been meaning to get to, sample a variety of new dishes from your chef’s varied, curated cuisine, practice your golf swing, and pamper yourself at the only Thai-certified Spa at sea. Delve into subject matter you’re eager to uncover, with lectures from historians who explore the history and culture of the region and provide a healthy dose of information and inspiration.

MEET YOUR LECTURERS

SUSAN BRAUD | LECTURER

As an experienced Senior Academic at a UK university specializing in Teacher Education and a former career as an esteemed Headteacher, one of Susan’s passions is language development and reading, in particular story-telling. On this transatlantic voyage, Susan offers an entirely different kind of story—a journey with her into the enchanting realms of words, language acquisition, narratives, and human communication. Brought up in a bilingual home, speaking both Welsh and English from birth, Susan also speaks French fluently and has an interest in a number of other languages.

DAVID GIES, PhD. | LECTURER

David T. Gies is Commonwealth Professor of Spanish and former Chairman of the Department of Spanish, Italian and Portuguese. He holds a BA from Penn State University and an MA and PhD from the University of Pittsburgh. An expert on the literature of Enlightenment and Romantic Spain, and contemporary Spanish film, Professor Gies has published seventeen books and critical editions of Spanish literature. He has authored more than one hundred twenty-five articles and one hundred forty-five book reviews.
